The TBP officials are in the US for Meetings, Incentives Travel, Conventions and Exhibitions (MICE)-related meetings in Chicago, St. Louis MO, and Minneapolis MN. They also presented new video and printed materials that showcase different points of interests for various visitors to the Philippines (beaches and sandbars, golf courses, shopping and entertainment centers, business convention and meeting facilities, and medical care centers).

The TPB principally promotes group tour packages for corporations, business groups, and other large and small organizations. Mesdames Fajardo-Lacson and de Luna-Landan are going around the US Midwest to meet potential clients and partners for TPB's program packages. Through them, Consul General Jamoralin conveyed the Consulate's unwavering support for TPB's efforts to promote the Philippines as a destination for MICE. END
