Chicago, 12 April 2019 – The Philippine Consul General in Chicago, Dr. Gina A. Jamoralin, met with Filipino-American Mayor of Brunswick Ron Falconi and community leaders in Ohio on 04-06 April 2019.

On 04 April 2019, Consul General Jamoralin met with leaders of the Filipino American Association of Southern Ohio (FAASO) led by Dr. Emmanuel “Butch” Rivera, FAASO’s current President, at the Losantiville Country Club in Cincinnati.
They discussed the possible participation of Filipino Americans in Cincinnati and nearby areas in the Very Important Pinoy (VIP) Tour on 14-21 July 2019 and the Midwest Youth Leaders in the Diaspora (YouLeaD) Immersion Program on 03-09 January 2019, both to be held in the Philippines. They also talked about the Independence Day celebration on 12 June 2019 and other proposed community events. They also discussed strengthening linkages with U.S. government officials and a possible sister-city arrangement.

On 5 April 2019, Consul General Jamoralin met with Dr. Susan Gumabao Flores, candidate for Honorary Consul, to discuss possible arrangements for enhancing the provision of consular services in Ohio. Dr. Flores also accompanied Consul General Jamoralin during her meeting with the Office of Congresswoman Marcia Fudge.
On 6 April 2019, Consul General Jamoralin was accompanied by Dr. Susan Flores and her spouse, Dr. Toribio Flores (Vice President of the Philippine American Society of Ohio and former President of the Association of Philippine-American Physicians of Ohio) to the Philippine-American Cultural and Civic Center in Parma, Ohio.

On the same day, Consul General Jamoralin attended the 50th birthday celebration of Mr. Ron Falconi, Filipino-American Mayor of Brunswick, Ohio. They discussed the VIP Tour, YouLead Immersion Program, and the sister-city arrangement between Brunswick and San Juan, Metro Manila, which is currently being finalized. During the occasion, Consul General Jamoralin also met with other leaders and members of the Filipino-American community. END
