

CONSULATE GENERAL OF THE REPUBLIC OF THE PHILIPPINES CHICAGO

PRESS RELEASE No. 41-2019

CONSUL GENERAL JAMORALIN MEETS WITH CONGRESSMAN LEVIN

Chicago, 08 May 2019 – Continuing a proud and excellent tradition of public service that began with his uncle, US Senator Carl Levin, and his father, Congressman Sander Levin, freshman Congressman Andrew Saul “Andy” Levin welcomed Consul General Gina A. Jamoralin to his new congressional district office in Warren, Michigan.

Consul General Jamoralin was on an official visit in Michigan for a round of calls on members of the congressional delegation of the Wolverine State to help drum up support for the US-Philippines Friendship Caucus, especially among the newly elected US representatives.

Congressman Andy Levin warmly receiving Consul General Jamoralin at his congressional district office in Warren, Michigan (Photo courtesy of DCG RV Israel Jr.)

A member of the House Committee on Education and Labor and Committee on Foreign Affairs, Congressman Levin gladly shared with the Consul General his passion and priorities for the improvement of the wage and welfare of American workers, as well as his views as a former human rights activist who has travelled to many parts of the world including Central America and South and Southeast Asia.

122 South Michigan Avenue, Suite 1600, Chicago, Illinois 60603, USA
Tel. No. 1(312) 583-0621; Fax No. 1(312) 583-0647
www.chicagopcg.dfa.gov.ph, chicagopcg@att.net

The Consul General congratulated the Democratic Congressman and expressed hope that he would consider joining the US-Philippines Friendship Caucus and support common causes and interests, as he enters public service and carries on the great legacy of his father and uncle. Both the elder Levins have a combined 72 years in Congress in service of their constituents and their country.

According to the US Census Survey of 2010, Filipinos and Filipino-Americans number about 4,607 in the 9th Congressional District, the second largest concentration of all the 14 districts in Michigan. END

Congressman Andy Levin listens to Consul General Jamoralin on developments in the Philippines during their meeting on the last day of Congressman Levin's District Work Period on April 26. Joining them were Honorary Consul Marcus Evangelista (right) and DCG Romulo Victor Israel Jr. (Photo courtesy of the Office of Honorary Consul Evangelista)