Ramos, who assumed his position at the Philippine Embassy in August 2018, assured the Consulate General of his full support as his mandate covers the entire United States and other Posts in North and South America.

Both officials looked forward to closer collaboration on providing assistance to Filipino nationals in distress and engaging the Filipino diaspora in the Midwest in promoting support for national peace-building efforts as well as stronger security relations between the Philippines and the United States.

A Camiling, Tarlac native, Police Attache Ramos is also maximizing his stay in the Windy City to network with fellow law enforcement officials before returning to Washington DC to serve as Peace Officer at the close of voting period on May 13. END
